

Emma the Movie and Grand Cafe Restaurant

Calling all Jane Austen Fans...

Filmmaker Autumn de Wilde is serving up a fresh new take on the Jane Austen novel with the film Emma. Complete with a stylized punctuated period in the title, the new version is a Focus Features co-production with Working Title and Blueprint Productions and joins the ranks of other Hollywood iterations of the classic story. The world can't get enough of this Austen's comedy of "love and all its surprises". De Wilde cracks open a visionary pastel-hued cheekiness to the beloved story.

We are lunching at the elegant, French, Grand Cafe in Morristown, New Jersey. It's decor will complement the mood set by the movie.

After lunch our Bus will take us to Madison NJ for strolling and shopping.
