The Shakespeare Theatre kicks off its 60th season with Matthew Barber’s Enchanted April, based on Elizabeth Von Arnim’s novel of the same name.

Of all the great classics performed by ABT today, Swan Lake remains the quintessential ballet. Featuring the unforgettable corps de ballet moving in magical unison as the majestic, glimmering swans, this romantic fable of dreamlike transformation, set to Tchaikovsky’s glorious score, inspires awe and wonder.

Written in the wake of the 1918 Spanish Flu pandemic, it is an exuberant, funny, and moving tale about reawakening from despair and daring to hope and dream again.

Back by popular demand, we will dine at “Chez Josephine”, a bubbly return to the joie-de-vivre of Paris in the 1930’s. This landmark jewel of a restaurant is a tribute to Josephine Baker.

Before the show we will enjoy strolling and shopping in Madison NJ.

Dinner will be served at the highly recommended “Osteria Trevi”, for a taste of Tuscany.
