

SARGENT & PARIS

Met Museum, Sargent & Paris, Plaza Hotel for Tea, NYC

Thurs., May 15th, 9:30 am Departure

Sargent and Paris explores the early career of American painter John Singer Sargent (1856–1925), from his arrival in Paris in 1874 as a precocious 18-year-old art student through the mid-1880s, when his infamous portrait Madame X was a scandalous success at the Paris Salon. Sargent achieved recognition by creating boldly ambitious portraits and figure paintings that pushed the boundaries of conventionality.

We will enjoy an afternoon Tea at the iconic Plaza Hotel celebrating Christina's thirtieth year of organizing daytrips.

June Blooms and Museum of NYC, Table d'Hôte, NYC

Thurs., June 5th, 9:30 am Departure

The Conservatory Garden is a formal garden near the northeastern corner of Central Park in Upper Manhattan, New York City. We will stroll and sit amongst the English and French style gardens. One of the highlights is the Burnett fountain located in the English garden at the end of a water lily pool.

We will continue our day at the Museum of NYC viewing the newly restored Stettheimer Dollhouse, as well as "You Are Here" a rich archive of movies set in NYC.

Late lunch will be at Table d'Hote, French.

Please mail all checks to: Christina Mantz at 97 Whitewood Ave. Staten Island NY, 10310. (718) 619-0897
