

The Morgan Library,
Medieval Money, Merchants, and Morality
Weds., March 6th, 9:30 am Departure

Mr. Morgan's library, as it was known in his lifetime, was built between 1902 and 1906 adjacent to his New York residence at Madison Avenue and 36th Street. It was Designed by Charles McKim of the architectural firm McKim, Mead & White. Majestic in appearance yet intimate in scale, the structure was to reflect the nature and stature of its holdings. The result was an Italian Renaissance-style palazzo with three magnificent rooms epitomizing America's Age of Elegance. It is considered by many to be his masterpiece.

Luncheon will be served at La Grande Boucherie, an authentic Parisian dining experience in NYC.

Museum of the Moving Image,
The Noguchi Museum.

Thurs., April 18th, 9:30 am Departure

MoMI is a fantastic museum with superb artefacts on show telling the history of film, television and animation. We will explore the exhibit "Jim Henson: Imagination Unlimited". The exhibit features a broad range of objects from his remarkable career.

Luncheon will be served at Stamatis Restaurant which serves traditional Greek dishes.

After lunch, we will visit The Noguchi Museum which holds the world's largest and most extensive collection of Isamu Noguchi's sculptures, drawings, models, and designs. Our visit will include the sculpture filled garden.
