

The Morgan Library,
Medieval Money, Merchants, and Morality
Weds., March 6th, 9:30 am Departure

Mr. Morgan's library, as it was known in his lifetime, was built between 1902 and 1906 adjacent to his New York residence at Madison Avenue and 36th Street. It was Designed by Charles McKim of the architectural firm McKim, Mead & White. Majestic in appearance yet intimate in scale, the structure was to reflect the nature and stature of its holdings. The result was an Italian Renaissance-style palazzo with three magnificent rooms epitomizing America's Age of Elegance. It is considered by many to be his masterpiece.

Luncheon will be served at Pera Mediterranean Brasserie, with a Turkish inspired menu.

New York Botanical Garden,
The Orchid Show, Florals in Fashion
Wed., April 10th, 9:30 am Departure

The 21st edition of NYBG's iconic and beloved Orchid Show will be a fashion-inspired celebration of all things orchids! The iconic Enid A. Haupt Conservatory serves as the runway for dramatic installations created by three featured designers inspired by the natural world. Experience up close the vibrant hues, varied shapes, and bold textures of this beloved flower.

In the afternoon we will visit the iconic Arthur Avenue, strolling past and through famous bakeries and Mike's Deli. For lunch we will enjoy Emilia's restaurant, a mainstay for traditional Italian dishes.
