

Newark Museum/Ballantine House,
Ironbounds Adeg Grill, NJ

Weds., January 30th, 10 am Departure

The Ballantine House is the only surviving Victorian mansion in a part of Newark that was the City's most prestigious neighborhood during the Gilded Age. We will view an exhibition tracing America's love affair with sterling silver and celebrate a quarter-century of collecting silver at the Newark Museum.

Luncheon will be served at the Adeg Grill. With an accommodating and quaint atmosphere, Adeg Grill is the hottest place in the Ironbound section. Inspired by it's name, Adeg meaning wine cellar in Portuguese, the motif of the decoration is of vineyards and wine making.

Frida Kahlo at the Brooklyn Museum,
Meze Restaurant, Dyker Heights, NYC

Weds., March 27th, 10 am Departure

Frida Kahlo: Appearances Can Be Deceiving is the largest U.S. exhibition in ten years devoted to the iconic painter and the first in the United States to display a collection of her clothing and other personal possessions, which were rediscovered and inventoried in 2004 after being locked away since Kahlo's death, in 1954. They are displayed alongside important paintings, drawings, and photographs, as well as related historical film and ephemera.

Luncheon will be at Meza restaurant in Dyker Heights Brooklyn. Meze is the best place in Brooklyn for fine Greek and Mediterranean dining.
