It will include unusual and outsized art installations, fantastical tea parties, and all of the wonderfully weird beauty of Alice's world of imagination, made real with thousands of technicolor flowers.

We will visit the iconic Arthur Avenue for strolling past bakeries and through Mikes Deli. Lunch will be at the ever popular Emilia's restaurant.

Welcome to the Lush Summer Gardens of The Met Cloisters

Thurs., June 13th, 9:30 am Departure

During the Middle Ages, cloisters were places to reflect and recharge. Nowhere else in the United States can you find the combination of such stunning examples of original medieval European architecture, exquisite gardens, and marvelous works of art. Here you'll discover that the so-called "dark ages" were actually a bright period of innovation, imagination, and creativity. The Unicorn Tapestries at the Cloisters are among the most arresting artworks from the Middle Ages. In seven woven panels, they tell the story of a quest to capture the magical creature.

Luncheon will be at Le Monde restaurant to celebrate the French Unicorn Tapestries.
