Our first stop in the morning will be in Lambertville and New Hope for strolling.

An afternoon tea luncheon awaits us at the new Teaberry. It was created in a lovingly restored Victorian home as a refuge from the outside world. Inside you will feel pampered as the atmosphere is relaxed yet elegant, cozy and never rushed. Fresh flowers and linens adorn each table and the attentive wait staff will take excellent care of you.

“Raphael: Sublime Poetry” at the Met,
 The Plaza for Tea, NYC

Tues., April 14th, 9:00 am Departure

A true titan of the Italian Renaissance, better known as Raphael—matched ambition with lyricism to create works with both intellectual heft and emotional depth, a necessary skill in the complex political landscape of Renaissance courts. In his short life of only 37 years, he achieved such profound success as a painter, designer, and architect.

Afternoon Tea will be served at the iconic Plaza Hotel.
