

Theatre Club Summer 2024!

You are invited to join me at the theater for three glorious nights of first rate restaurants and orchestra seating, all with the convenience of chartered transportation.

Tuesday, July, 16th — “Lempicka”

Fleeing the Russian revolution, aristocrat Tamara de Lempicka and her beloved husband Tadeusz are forced to make a new life. In the rising tide of fascism, Tamara takes to painting to survive, and when she meets the free-spirited Rafaela, a prostitute on the fringes of Parisian society, she's torn between the life she cherishes with her husband and the passion, ambition, and possibility awoken in her by her new muse.

Playing at: Longacre Theatre. 220 W 48th St. NYC
Including Dinner at: Heritage Restaurant. 80 W 40th St. NYC

Price: $350.00 per person — 3 pm Departure

Tuesday, August, 6th — “The Book of Mormon”

In The Book of Mormon, a pair of mismatched Mormon boys are sent on a mission to a place that's about as far from Salt Lake City as you can get. A musical from the creators of “South Park” and the co-creator of Avenue Q.

Playing at: Eugene O'Neill Theatre. 230 W 49th St. NYC
Including Dinner at: La Grande Boucherie. 145 W 53rd St, NYC

Price: $350.00 per person — 3 pm Departure

Wednesday, Sept, 11th — “Sense and Sensibility”

When their father's death leaves them penniless and socially vulnerable, sisters Elinor and Marianne must navigate the snares of society and determine where their values truly lie. How can they listen to their hearts when money dictates marriages? Will pragmatism or romance win out in the end? Austen's celebrated first novel captures the twisting relationships and delicate emotions of the Dashwood sisters with humor and style.

Playing at: The Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey. Madison N.J.
Including Dinner at: The Madison Hotel. Morristown N.J.

Price: $300.00 per person — 11:30 am Departure
