Historic Long Branch and Ocean Grove.

Ocean Avenue in Long Branch, New Jersey, served as the glittering "Summer Capital" of the United States during the 19th and early 20th centuries, hosting U.S. presidents, wealthy industrialists, and grand seaside Historic Views of Ocean Avenue architecture. The boulevard was once lined with magnificent wooden palaces, the historic West End Hotel, and grand properties like the Franklyn Cottage designed by Charles F. McKim. Miss Ellie will board our van and be our guide for a tour of Long Branch.
Luncheon will be served at "Avenue" on the boardwalk

In the afternoon we will visit Ocean Grove, a historic seaside town known for having Victorian architecture, shopping and homemade New Jersey ice cream.

Please mail all checks to: Christina Mantz at 97 Whitewood Ave. Staten Island NY, 10310.
